ALL SUMMER AT CHICKAMAUGA Chickamauga, June 8.—The usual hard drills and maneuvers employed the various regiments of General Brooke's big volunteer army today. The temperature continued high, but it was again relieved somewhat by a steady breeze.

What the whole army is now praying for is a hard downpour of rain. The dust is increasing dally and unless rain soon abates it, it will become an almost ur bearable nulsance. Thousands of horse and wagons constantly moving along the park roads, and the long dry spell, have combined to make this nuisance the wor and, in fact, the only considerable on with which the army has to contend

Governor Bradley and staff of Kentucky who arrived last night, spent the night a Lookout Inn and went to the park at an early hour this morning. They are guests of the two infantry regiments and entwo cavalry troops of Kentucky soday In their honor these commands have given number of special drills.

Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania with his staff, is scheduled to arrive Saturday to spend several days with the Pennsylvania regiments here. A number of other governors have been invited to visit the camp and it is believed that the invitations will be accepted.

A movement is now on foot to have Pres ident McKinley and such of his cabinet officers as can accompany him, inspec formal invitation will be extended and the president will be urged to accept. If and his party will be elaborately entertained by the city and at the park.
